

CAMP GRANITE LAKE

Dear Potential Counselors & Staff Members,

Before you move any further with the hiring process, it's important that you read these two pages.

We're honored that you are considering a position at Camp Granite Lake as your summer job. A summer at camp will be one of the most fun, rewarding, and yes, challenging summers of your life. We disconnect from technology, build deep meaningful connections with nature and each other, and slow the pace of life down for a little bit.

Like any job, but especially one where we all work and live together, it's important that we are as good a fit for you, as you are for us.

It's no secret that a lot has happened in our country over the last few years. As a camp that believes science is real, Black Lives Matter, and that peoples rights should be recognized no matter their sexual orientation or identity, it's important we share a few of our values with potential staff members:

- We take COVID seriously and follow the science: All of our staff and eligible campers are required to be vaccinated, and we'll take any necessary steps to keep our community healthy. As a staff member this may mean having to wear a mask at certain times, potential limitations on time off travel, pre-camp quarantines etc.

-We strive to build a diverse community: Let's face it - summer camp is not known for being the most diverse place. While camp won't just flip a switch and be a model for diversity overnight, we are actively taking steps to make camp more accessible to staff and campers from under-represented backgrounds and offer them support while they are at camp!

- How we treat each other and the words we use really matter: Words have a lot of power, and in building a community of kindness, what we say, and how we say it really matters. It's important to us that people be called their chosen name and pronouns, and it's not uncommon for us to start activities with a name game, and the opportunity to share proneness if the camper or staff would like to share them.

Additionally, we have do not tolerate speech that disrespects the humanity of another person.

We are a camp that welcomes folks from the LGBTQIA+ communities: We have lots of campers who identify with one or more of these communities. Campers and staff bunk with the gender with which the identify.

CAMP GRANITE LAKE

We call people IN and not OUT!:

Each of us is at a different place along the path of awareness, education and engagement when it comes to matters of diversity, equity and inclusion. If we want to see the changes in our society that so many are fighting for, it's important that more and more people be called in and not out.

We've often found that both campers and staff are hesitant to discuss matters of race or gender because they don't want to 'say the wrong thing' and be called out. However, there is no way to broaden the umbrella if we don't give people the chance to ask questions and learn in a non-judgmental way.

At camp, we start with the assumption that everyone is doing the best that they know how to do. We acknowledge that each of us makes mistakes and that it's OK! The important thing is that each of us be open to learning and accepting new information, and then putting that into action.

Submitting an application to work at Camp Granite Lake is a commitment to believing we can make the world a kinder, gentler, and more inclusive place by being great role models for campers (seriously, if you want a kinder, more equitable and accepting world - where better to start than young people?). It means that you are willing to take on the challenge of working really hard to help yourself and our campers learn, grow, and become better people.

We will be doing this work together, with good intentions and great care for one another, and I hope you will join us.

Sincerely,
Tom, Krista, Abbie & Tommy

CAMP GRANITE LAKE

Dear Camp Granite Lake Staff Candidate:

Greetings! You are taking the first steps to an amazing summer job experience that will impact YOU as much as you impact the children. The most successful CGL staff members are those with the drive and excitement to provide a great summer camp growth experience to children.

We always say that we can train someone in the necessary 'hard skills' of our camp experience (leading a hike, song, etc.) but the 'soft skills' of understanding the needs of children, and being able to work with other staff to help identify those needs, and support them as they grow can't be taught in a few weeks of staff training.

If you are someone who loves the concept of summer camp, youth development, and the value of outdoor experience - whether or not you have a lot of experience in it - please consider applying today. To be successful in this job, you must love working with children, and be willing to work really hard!

As member of the CGL team, you have the opportunity to make a significant impact the life of a child. You may discover that working in youth development is truly your calling, or that the summer experience will help you in whatever field of work you decide to go into in the long run.

We look forward to having you as part of our Camp Granite Lake Staff Team.

Sincerely,

Tommy Feldman
Founder/Director, Camp Granite Lake

Testimonial From A Staff Member:

It was incredible to see how much camp can have an impact on children, watching friendships blossom, and watching campers make memories they will remember for a lifetime. It was the most rewarding experience for me, and I find myself talking about it and thinking about it each and every day since I left.

CAMP GRANITE LAKE

All About Camp!

Staff play the ultimate role in supporting CGL's philosophy and program. They are committed to creating an inclusive, supportive, and 'un-plugged' environment, where campers, directors, and staff live and work collaboratively, and create connections with each other, and the natural world around them. They are willing to work hard, really hard, and to create a 'kid first' environment, where the decisions we make day to day, in and out of camp reflect a commitment to our campers' experiences.

Camp is located at 9,000 feet, thirty minutes west of Boulder, and forty five minutes west of Denver. It features 135 acres, with an eight acre lake, and stunning views all around. The property is in close proximity to Roosevelt National Forest, and the Indian Peaks Wilderness. Our location allows campers and staff the opportunity to grow, have fun, and try rewarding activities in a beautiful mountain location.

Kitchen and facilities staff live in rustic, bright, comfortable, cabins - alongside other staff members with adjoining bathrooms. Staff have access to high-speed internet in the staff lounge.

CAMP GRANITE LAKE

Camp Philosophy and Staff

Camp Granite Lake gives children valuable growth opportunities in a fun, creative environment. We believe that the informal play of the camp setting offers an ideal complement to campers' home and school lives in which to learn about self, community, and the natural world.

In practice, what we see as valuable lessons in community and personal development, campers see as just plain fun! Campers and staff are excited to be a part of a welcoming and supportive camp community, ready to embrace new challenges and explore new things.

Along with our cabin counselors, the kitchen and facilities staff work with the camp directors to support our campers experience.

Whether it is providing a delicious meal for both campers and staff, setting up embers sites for a reflective time around the campfire, or washing campers clothes for the next week of fun, kitchen and facilities staff impact campers in a variety of ways.

The job sometimes requires a team approach across all departments; our success depends on the buy in of everyone! You must also be willing to work really hard, be flexible, and be committed to a 'campers first' community.

Compensation

Kitchen Manager: Starting at $800/weekly

Chef: Starting at $700/weekly

General Kitchen Staff: $400/Weekly

Testimonial From A Staff Member:

"Camp is a magical place. This is one of the most supportive, loving, kind, and altogether best environments I've ever been a part of"

CAMP GRANITE LAKE

Testimonial From A Staff Member:

“Camp Granite Lake was the best summer of my life so far, and I would love to have to opportunity to do it all again. I learned so much about myself, and I learned an incredible amount from the campers and counselors and directors. But above all else, I had fun and I got to be part of an environment that allowed children to let go, have fun, and learn and thrive in a new environment.”
